LET ME INTRODUCE MYSELF

Kaylee Grace Hayen; Graphic, Digital, Web Designer, Product Owner, Producer. When researching that name you will see all the above in varying design backgrounds. My experience in the ever-growing marketing industry includes design roles with corporate companies to marketing agencies, global publications and more. My wide range of design experience has helped me grow my skills professionally through these last 8 years. From print to digital design, I want to use my skills to create a positive impact on every company, client and project that I touch. I love a challenge and can't wait to see what comes next.
